

From Phoenix: Travel north on Highway 17, exiting at Highway 69 north. After 30 to 40 minutes you'll go through Prescott Valley and a few minutes later pass by the Frontier Village shopping center on the left. Get in the left lane and follow the "Gurley Street Business District" sign for about a mile. Make a left at Pleasant Street (by "Jack in the Box"), go down one long block to the intersection of Goodwin Street and you'll see the big green Victorian house on the right. Travel time from the intersection of Highway's 17 and 101 is about 1 1/2 hours and from Sky Harbor Airport it's about 2 hours.

From highway 17 going south: Get off at Highway 169 west and take it to Highway 69 where you turn right. A few minutes after passing through Prescott Valley you'll see the Frontier Village shopping center on the left. Get in the left lane and follow the "Gurley Street Business District" sign for about one mile making a left at Pleasant Street (at "Jack in the Box"). Go down one long block to the intersection of Goodwin Street and you'll see the big green Victorian house on the right.

From Highway 89 going north: On arrival in Prescott you will come to Courthouse Plaza. Turn right at Goodwin Street - the first street at the Plaza square. Go four blocks up the hill to the intersection of Pleasant Street and you will see the green Victorian house on the left.

From Highway 89 going south: On arrival in Prescott, get into the left lane and follow the "Gurley Street Business District" sign for about one mile, making a left at Pleasant Street (at "Jack in the Box"). Go down one long block to the intersection of Goodwin Street and you'll see the big green Victorian house on the right.

Parking: Angle parking is available in front of the house on Pleasant Street and parallel parking on the side of the house on Goodwin Street.